

I am against the FCC's proposal to expand the LPFM. This would force off the air the translators that I love and listen to all of the time, at home, in my car, at work. Please listen to the people and do away with this proposal